

Wiki tip: REVERTING TO AN EARLIER VERSION (kk, 24feb12)

If you make a mistake and want to go back to an earlier page, click on the clock icon near the “edit” button at the top of the page:

A list will appear with the dates of each revision. If you want to compare two versions, click on the two you want to compare and they will appear one after the other. If you know the date you want to go back to, click on that and the page will open with the content that was there on that date. Check the page and if that is the one you want, select “Revert to this version” and your page is updated to the earlier page. If you aren’t sure, use the other buttons to see older and newer versions until you find the one you want:
